THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, July 9th, 1744. [Numb. 537]

GIBRALTAR, Feb. 28.

ON the 26th Inſtant was brought in here by his Majeſty's Ship the Solebay, Captain Bury, the Concordia, a Spaniſh Regiſter-ſhip, of 22 Guns and 142 Men, including Paſſengers, taken the Day before off Cadiz, after Five Hours Engagement. She is the richeſt Prize that has been made in the preſent War with Spain, having on board 180,000 Dollars, 1200 Seroos of Cochineal, 500 of Indigo, and ſeveral other rich Goods, the whole computed at a Million and an half of Pieces of Eight.

LONDON, March 10.

We hear upwards of 500 Switzers have entered themſelves at Sir Luke Schaub's in Clarges ſtreet, to ſerve as a Regiment, if we are invaded, and their Regimental Cloaths are ordered to be made, and are to be grey turn'd up with red.

We hear that Sir Charles Hardy, with a Squadron of his Majeſty's Ships from the Downs, will ſail in a few Days on an Expedition of great Importance.

From Bath they write, that there are upwards of 500 Gentlemen Voluntiers in and near that City, preparing to learn a proper military Exerciſe, in order to be ready at an Hour's Warning, with proper Accoutrements and Ammunition, in caſe there ſhould be an Invaſion in the Weſt, or in any other Part of this Kingdom.

This Morning came Advice from Deal, that Sir John Norris hoiſted his Flag on board the Suffolk, a third Rate, on Thurſday and in that Afternoon he made a Signal to unmoor.

March 13. We are juſt aſſured from Kettering in Northamtonſhire, that his Grace the Duke of Montagus is raiſing a compleat Regiment of Horſe among the neighbouring Gentlemen, Tradeſmen, Tenants, &c. Their Cloathing is to be blew lined with red, and yellow Buttons; their Accoutrements and Arms the compleateſt; and to ſuch as can't ſupport themſelves Troopers Pay will be allow'd by his Grace. Thoſe already inliſted, which are about 300, are under Exerciſe, and expect Orders for marching upwards.

They write from the Hague, that the Abbé De La Ville, Miniſter of France, having in a Conference with ſome of the principal Members of the States, on the Affair of the Succours deſtin'd for Great-Britain, after extolling the pacifick Diſpoſition of his Maſter, expreſs'd himſelf in Terms that favour'd of Menace, if that Meaſure was executed; a certain Lord of the State interrupted him pretty warmly, and recapitulating the Miſchiefs done by France ſince the Death of the Emperor, under Pretence of pacifick Views added, 'You now meditate Sieges, cover 'the Seas with Men of War, and are ma-'king Embarkations with a View of car-'rying Fire and Sword into England, in 'Favour of the Son of the Pretender. To 'what Purpoſe is all this? Is it to ter-'rify? Is it to ſtir up a Revolt? Or, in 'order to eſtabliſh Peace? Is it with a 'View of cauſing thoſe who are inclin'd 'to it to take up Arms? If that be your 'Deſign, we too ſhall take them up in 'due Time; we are ready for doing ſo. 'Let France uſe her utmoſt Efforts; we 'now expect the worſt Things on her 'Part, without either Trouble or Fear 'on Ours.

The French Miniſter reply'd, That the Deſign of France was actually to invade England; and that if the Court of Great-Britain had already ſuffer'd any Diſquietude from ſuch little Matters, its Uneaſineſs was by no Means yet determined, for that the Britiſh Nation would perhaps in a little while feel even agonizing Pains. The ſteady and courageous Diſcourſe of the Member of the Dutch Government ſhews that the Republick is got above Fear, and will no longer keep Meaſures with a Court harden'd in the moſt infamous Breaches of Faith.

We hear that the City Militia, who are to be muſtered in a few Days, will be obliged to do Duty by Turns in the City of London, and be reliev'd as the Guards uſually are.

Yeſterday the Heads of the People called Quakers waited on his Majeſty at St. James's with a loyal Addreſs, to which they received a moſt gracious Anſwer.

March 15. Letters from Nice ſay, that Admiral Mathews's Fleet ſteer'd for Port-Mahon after the Engagement with the French and Spaniards, in order to refit and put to Sea again.

March 17. The laſt Letters from Madrid import, that the King of Spain was very ill, and that the Biſhop of Rennes the French Ambaſſador at that Court, was lately inſulted by the Populace in his Coach, and two of his Domeſticks forcibly carried off.

We hear that 28 Battalions of Heſſe-meuteſe Troops are arrived in the County of Nice, and that more were expected ſoon to arrive; as alſo, that the Spaniards are making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to open the Campaign betimes.

We hear from Toulon and Marſeilles, that they are fitting out what Shipping and Gallies they have left in their Ports; and that a conſiderable Number of Tranſports are daily coming to Antibes, to which Place the Enemy's Infantry was in full March.

The laſt Letters from Provence ſay, that they are ſtill taking up Ships for tranſporting Troops into Italy; and that it is generally believed, the Embarkation will take Place by the Middle of the Month of April, if not ſooner.

It is affirmed in Letters from Munich, that the Auſtrian Huſſars have diſcovered and ſeized in the Electorate, no leſs a Sum than 4,000,000 Florins, which the Bavarian Clergy had privately raiſed among themſelves, for the Service of his Imperial Majeſty.

The old Marquis de Torcy, who is now reported to be again declared Prime Miniſter in France, is the ſame Perſon who was at the Head of Affairs towards the End of the Reign of Louis XIV and dictated the Treaty of Utrecht. His Name is Colbert, and he is deſcended from the Great Colbert, who rais'd the Arts and Manufactures of France, in the ſame Reign, to the Figure they have ſince made in Europe.

It gives great Pleaſure to ſee the hearty Concurrence of the Dutch, who, according to the Gazette, not only have agreed to continue the 20,000 Auxiliaries, but to keep 20,000 more in Readineſs to march. Their Men of War are equipping, and 'tis thought will be a Condition to put to Sea, at leaſt 18 Ships, in leſs than a Fortnight. The Campaign is like to open immediately in Flanders. The Allied Army conſiſts of 80,000 Men, beſides Huſſars, &c. The King of Poland's Army as Elector of Saxony 104,000 Horſe and Foot, and we may depend upon his Aſſiſtance. The Electorate of Hanover has taken into its own proper Pay a Body of 6000 Wolfenbuttlians, who are marching to Flanders. General Wade is buſy in reviewing the Forces, and putting them in a Condition to act.

March 24. By his Majeſty's Declaration for the Encouragement of his Ships of War and Privateers, the ſole Intereſt and Property in every Prize is veſted in the Captors.

We hear Sir John Norris has deſired Leave to reſign.

'Tis ſaid Admiral Lestock, and ſome of his Officers, are under Arreſt.

We hear that twenty Men of War, from twenty to fifty Guns, are ordered to fit with all Expedition to cruize in the Channel, &c. to protect our Ships from falling into the Hands of the French Privateers.

On Friday and Saturday the Remainder of the 6000 Dutch Troops landed at Ghent and Oſtend from Holland.

An

An Embargo is laid on all French Veſſels in the River.

CHARLES TOWN, July 9.

On Tueſday laſt a large Fleet of Ships ſet Sail from Rebellion Road, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Snow the Spy, commanded by Capt. Newnham

We hear, that the two Prizes ſent into Jamaica by Capt. Frankland, have been ſold there for 2000 l. Sterling

Laſt Saturday arrived here his Majeſty's Snow the Swallow. But we don't hear of any Orders brought by her, for proclaiming War here againſt France.
